Hollandia Gravity Zero Groove: $10,000 (www.hollandiaus.com) Musical beds? No, we're not suggesting a revolving romp. The Hollandia Gravity Zero Groove, one of the world's most advanced sleep systems, is wired for sound. The adjustable bed features a 150-watt sound system, a 12-setting massage function with auto-timer, a built-in Vita Talalay latex mattress and a flexible shoulder comfort zone. Custom options include choice of fabric, texture and color. It's time to get your groove on.
