

March 05, 2009

80s fashion inspires Karim

Neon brights and futuristic designs are dominating the fashion runways, bringing the 80s back - looks like we may be stuck with leggings a bit longer.

And like leggings, these 80s inspired designs may be best suited for teens.

Leading the trend in home furnishings, renowned designer Karim Rashid (known for his cheeky designs for Alessi, Dirt Devil and Prada) has created a new line of beds for Hollandia International featuring edgy looks with multi-functional appeal (like a collapsible desk and night stands, even a retractable TV).

-- allie